

Geography
Year 4 The UK Who are We?

Concepts
Locational Knowledge Human & Physical Geography

Prior Learning	New Learning	Future Learning
Name and locate different types of UK settlements (hamlets, villages, towns, cities, conurbations), and mountains, employing the use of the eight points of a compass, maps, symbols and keys. Describe, understand and distinguish between key types of settlement and land use (hamlet, village, town, city, conurbation, rural, urban, suburban) Describe and explain how some UK settlements have developed and changed over time, and why certain locations are more favourable than others.	Know the five countries of the British Isles Name and locate the regions and counties, using maps to identify the size and location of the UK's counties. Use images of the UK to investigate places, finding out similarities and difference between towns and cities across the UK and present geographical information. Understand migration is when people move from one place to another and the reasons for migration and difference between immigration and emigration into the UK. Recognise that people have differing qualities of life living in different locations and environments Know how the locality is set within a wider geographical context Identify the UK's global links	Understand how climate and vegetation are connected in biomes (e.g. the tropical rainforest and the desert). Describe different biomes and how plants and animals are adapted to them. Explain some ways biomes (including the oceans) are valuable, why they are under threat and how they can be protected. Map and label the six biomes on a world map. Understand how local woodland is used and changing using a variety of data collection methods.

Sequence of Learning	Current Vocabulary	New Vocabulary
Regions and Counties of the United Kingdom Five Counties of the British Isles Using a map to identify regions and counties in the UK What county do we live in? Diversity of the UK Using photographs to identify the diversity of the landscapes of the UK. Stereotypes about regions and locations Stereotypes in the place I live Moving in and Out of the UK Migration—how, why, positive and negative benefits Migration of our school community Impact of the UK's Changing Population UK Population How is the UK population changing and why Moving within the UK Why do people move? Use maps to share where we have moved from UK's Global Links What global links do we have in the UK Global links in our local area	Topographical map Ordinal Survey Map Atlas Scale Grid reference Hamlets Rural Urban Suburban Agriculture Freshwater Coastal Pasture Protected Land Forestry Habitat Biodiversity Settlements Population Facilities	British Isles - England, Scotland, Wales, Northern Ireland, Republic of Ireland Region County Diversity Population Abroad Migration Emigration Immigration Inhabitants Character Multicultural International

Trip/Visitor
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Families who have migrated to the UK within our school community

Other Information	Home Learning— Where does my family come from? ⇒ Use a UK and World map to display information gathered
--------------------------	--